

Meet the teacher

hello

My name is Sam. My pronouns are she/her. Welcome to a year of fun and wonder in our preschool classroom!

I live in Cleveland Heights with my husband and our two sons, ages 9 and 6. As a family we like to camp, hike, ice skate, and sing in the car!

I can't wait to discover what makes your child's heart and mind sing!

This is me

In this exciting year ahead we'll celebrate our individuality, cherish the strengths of community, and further construct a beautiful bridge to life-long learning.

The expressions of energy, emotion, curiosity, and creativity in a child's early developmental years are a marvel! My passion for working with young children is rooted in the heart of this special time. We'll plant seeds together and we will grow!

My work with Many Villages In-School Tutoring program highlights individual learning styles as a path to meaningful learning. As a children's yoga instructor I believe that movement and mindfulness support a child's evolving sense of self and encourages resilience.

Fun Facts about me:

- I was born in Cleveland, OH on a cold and snowy night.
- My favorite children's book is The Snowy Day.
- I like to play chess on any given day!
- Fond memories from my childhood: pre-internet living, camping, road trips.
- My trips abroad: Dominican Republic, France, Spain.
- I hope to visit Thailand and Peru.
- I love hummus with my whole heart!
- My personal mantra: Peace begins with me.
